

Michael Konoza, MSPT, ATC, CSCS

Physical Therapist, Athletic Trainer,
Strength & Conditioning Specialist

Education & experience benefit my patients

“Physical therapy is both art and science. I have over 18 years of practical experience combined with an average of three continuing education courses a year over that time period. The entire Carolina Sportscare team will put together the best individualized plan of care for you. Our goal is to provide you with the tools to achieve your personal goals and get you back to the active life you desire.”

MS: Physical Therapy, Indiana Central University

BS: Agronomy, Delaware Valley College, Doylestown, PA

Certified: Athletic Trainer, West Chester State University, West Chester, PA and National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA); Strength & Conditioning Specialist, National Strength & Conditioning Association

Teamwork helps raise our level of care

“Working closely with colleagues and other allied health professionals helps me raise the level of care I provide to patients.”

Member: American Physical Therapy Association, NATA, National Strength & Conditioning Association, American Association of Manual Physical Therapists

A strong commitment to my community

“Not only being a member of the community but being a contributing member is important to me. Nothing gives me more satisfaction than seeing former patients out in the community accomplishing the goals they set forth in physical therapy. Serving and giving back to the community financially, emotionally and with all my skills is most rewarding.”

Community Service: Elder, Tidal Creek Fellowship; Consultant, Team Beaufort (2001-2002), AAU National Champion Olympic Weightlifting; Financial Supporter, Child Abuse Prevention Association; Christian-Based Youth Athletic Ministry
